09:57:12 From Jonathan Fuchs (he/him) to Everyone: national Science Foundation has a wonderful map based program to search regional innovation engines...a nice model

09:57:14 From Patricia Duffy Workforce Development Board of Ventura County to Paz Delsid-UCSF Fresno: The Workforce Development Boards would find this information very useful. There a 46 Boards across the State and the State is also divided into 15 Regions with Regional Organizers for those regions. The California Workforce Association can distribute this information to the Workforce Boards. Board Directors throughout the State meet at least monthly.

The entire State of CA is covered through this network of Workforce Development Boards. I can help with this if you need assistance.

09:57:31 From Jocelyn Estiandan to Everyone: Los Angeles County DPH is working to establish an Academic Health Department, formalizing relationships with local colleges and universities. The inventory can help us understand which institutions have invested time and resources in pathways programs.

10:01:38 From Paz Delsid-UCSF Fresno to Everyone: If you have an outstanding alum that could participate on the panel for the CHPC conference on October 20, please share their information with me. My email is paz.delsid@ucsf.edu
